WILLIAM BANKS' BULLETS
NOW HAVE TWO VICTIMS

Negro Who Shot Three Men Monday Night Is Still at Large and His Whereabouts Are Unknown.

Jake Smith, the negro, who was shot and seriously wounded by William Banks, in Kennedy's saloon Monday evening, died in the Dixie Hospital at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. The funerals of Samuel Robinson and Smith, the two victims of Banks' bullets, will probably be held today.

Banks, who made his escape after the shooting, was still at large last night. The authorities have been searching the various points in the hope of catching Banks, but he has so far succeeded in keeping his whereabouts unknown to the officers. Sheriff Curtis and his deputies, Messrs. C. C. Curtis, and Edwin Curtis, as well as the entire police force of the county, Hampton and Phoebus, were at work on the case yesterday.

Dr. K. Vanderslice and a coroner's jury spent several hours investigating the circumstances leading up to the shooting and returned a verdict that Smith and Robinson came to their death from the effects of gun shot wounds inflicted by a revolver in the hands of William Banks.

During the investigation yesterday it developed that Robinson and Banks were not on the best of terms before the game of cards was entered into.

CHICAGO HITS HARD
MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

Frederick A. Busse, Republican,
Defeats Mayor E. X. Dunne by Over 15,000 Plurality.

GREAT CHANGE IN SENTIMENT

Thousands of Voters, Who Two Years Ago, Were for City Control of Surface Roads Are Now Against It—Dunne Attributes His Defeat to the Money Power.

(By Associated Press.) CHICAGO, ILLS., April 2.—The most intense interest in a municipal campaign that Chicago has experienced in many years closed tonight with the election of Frederick A. Busse, the Republican candidate for mayor, over Edward X. Dunne his Democratic rival and a candidate for re-election. Busse's plurality was between 15,000 and 18,000 votes. The issues in the campaign have been largely based upon the improvement of the local traction systems. Both parties agreed that present conditions are intolerable, but differed as to the best method of revising them. The Democratic party, headed by Mayor Dunne, stood for immediate municipal ownership through condemnation of the street car properties, if the result could not be obtained in any other way. The Republican party favored ordinances which were recently passed by a Democratic city council over the veto of Mayor Dunne.

These ordinances provided for 20 year franchises for the street car companies, the city retaining the right to purchase the system for $50,000,000, plus the amount to be spent for immediate rehabilitation of the lines; six months notice being necessary of the city's intention to acquire the property.

The ordinances also provide for universal transfers throughout the city, a five cent fare and fifty-five per cent. of the net profit of the company to be paid to the city.

These ordinances were approved today by a majority of about 4,000. The vote generally showed a decided reversal of public opinion on municipal ownership compared with the mayorally campaign two years ago. At that time Dunne received 163,109 votes against 138,671 for John M. Harlan the Republican leader. This year the Republican vote was close to 165,000 and that of the Democrats about 148,000. The Prohibition vote ran slightly above that of two years ago, while the socialist vote fell off heavily, it being more than 12,000 less.

Was a Vicious Campaign. The campaign has been one of the most vicious the city has ever known. Charges and counter-charges have been hurled, the personal lives of the candidates have been discussed and speakers on both sides have indulged in speeches filled with invectives and abuse.

William Randolph Hearst came here from New York to take part in the campaign and brought with him cartoonists and editorial writers. His papers were the only publications in the city supporting Mayor Dunne, all other newspapers being for Busse and the ordinances. The papers favoring Busse made much of the cry that Chicago was able to manage its own interests without receiving instructions from New York.

The Hearst papers claimed that Mayor Dunne was acting for the best interests of Chicago and that it was therefore their duty to support him.

Mayor Dunne received the return at his home, surrounded by his family and a few friends. He appeared greatly affected by the reports and said: "It looks as though the money power has overwhelmed us, but our cause is not lost. Municipal ownership and governmental insurance will win in the end."

Corporation Counsel James Hamilton Lewis, who has been a staunch supporter of Mayor Dunne, said at 6 o'clock: "The result came by a combined Republican party which was led by able capitalists against what developed to be a distracted and divided Democratic party."

Mr. Busse who is postmaster of the city, gave out a statement to the following effect: "I am of course greatly delighted at the success of the Republican ticket. It shows that the people of this city favor immediate improvement in our street car systems and that they endorse the ordinances passed by the city council over the veto of Mayor Dunne."

CURTIS AND MORRIS ARE GIVEN FIFTEEN DAYS EACH

And Just to Show That There Was No Hard Feeling in the Matter, Mayor Jones Added a Fine.

Unless George Morris and James Curtis, negroes, can raise $25 each by April 26th they will be unable to attend the opening of the Jamestown Exposition. The two men were in the police court yesterday morning on the charge of stealing several valuable garments belonging to guests at the Augusta hotel about two months ago.

After hearing the evidence Mayor Jones sent them to jail for fifteen days and imposed a fine of $25 and costs upon each of them. If the fine is not paid they will have just 75 days to remain the guests of Sheriff Curtis.

He Will Be, Too.

"Senator, do you think a tax should be placed on bachelors?" "I certainly do," replied Senator Badger. "I think that every bachelor that marries should be taxed good and hard."—Milwaukee Sentinel.

How Much Could You Get
For Your Farm?

You are a farmer. You live near this town. You own land. Let us say that you own more than you need and would like to sell a hundred acres.

How much could you get per acre? Land values have risen lately. But has the value of your land risen as you think it should?

Your land is good land. You think it is worth considerably more than anybody has offered you. Well, let us see.

A man buying farm land naturally prefers to locate near a thriving, up to date town. He wants good home markets for his crops. He wants good schools.

Let us say your land is three miles from town. A farm that looks very much like yours is three miles from a town twice as big and twice as prosperous as this town.

If you were going to buy a farm for your own occupancy, wouldn't you pay a whole lot more for land near the town that is twice as large and twice as lively?

Of course you would. It would be good business.

Now, what makes a town big and bustling? Money. Money in circulation. Not in circulation in Chicago, for instance, but right in the town that wants to grow.

How much money have you sent to the big Mail Order houses in the city the past ten years? How much have your neighbors sent? How much have all of you together put out of circulation here at home?

It is probably beyond calculation. If all that money had been spent in your own home town, isn't it reasonable to assume that the town would have grown more than it has grown?

Wouldn't this town be a bigger and better town?

Wouldn't it have more stores to buy your produce?

Wouldn't it have more public improvements to make it more attractive to outsiders who might come here to live, to go into business, or buy your surplus land at a good figure?

TO TRADE AT HOME MEANS TO HELP THE TOWN AND THE NEIGHBORHOOD. TO HELP THE TOWN AND THE NEIGHBORHOOD MEANS TO HELP YOURSELF.
